The Vote for District Attorney. Seventeenth Twentieta. Twenty-first Twenty-fourth Ward.

KINGS COUNTY.

Ring Politicians Permitted to Retire to Pri-

The registration in Brooklyn was about 5,000 larger than last year, and a very full vote was polled. The Judiciary vote inclined largely expected to give Tappen the larger vote. All but three city wards had been heard from at both offices to "Boss" McLaughlin. Mr. Wm. Richardson is badly beaten for Senator in the Second District, and Jacobs probably elected in the Second. The Democratic Aldermen and Assemblymen seem to be in the majority. The contest is so close for the office of Supervisor at Large that a reasonable conjecture could not be made at midnight. At Republican headquarters it was joy usiy asserted that James Howeil, Jr., the corrupt Iting politician, had been sent back to private life.

The Rev. Henry Ward Beecher voted at noon in Montague street, where "Billy" Fowier and Wm. C. DeWitt were watching the polls, and as he passed the Ring beauties he smiled.

Latest—Schroeder is elected Mayor by a small majority, and Albert Daggett is elected Sheriff by about 1,500 majority. Jacob Worth is defeated for the Assembly by about 75 votes. A. P. Higgins, Johnathon Ogden, and William J. Cropsey, Republicans, are elected to the Assembly.

WESTCHESTER COUNTY.

Robertson Probably Elected to the Senate-Judge Tappen's Vote.

The election in Westchester county was conducted in comparative quietness. A fail vote was cast, and on the State ticket the Democrats claim a majority of 1,000 There being no opposing candidate for County Treasurer, Mr. Geo. W. Davids, the Democratic candidate, polled large vote, and has probably increased the marity of the rest of the county ticket. On the judiciary ticket Judge Tappen ran well in the eastern and southern towns, and his opponent, J. O. Dykman, policd a large vote in the north-western and northerly towns. Of the twenty-four town, in the county, ten of them will possibly give amajority for Dykman, and the others a majority for Jappen.

The greatest interest was centred in the Senatorial ticket. Fourteen towns have probably casta majority for Robertson, and the ten northerly towns a majority for Stephen S. Marshal, the Democratic candidate. The majority for Robertson in the lower districts will, it is claimed, more than counterpaiance any major-the Democratic candidate, is no doubt elected over Mr. Goo W. Day no rt.

In the First District three candidates were in the field, and the result is do 10 feld. Ar. Orch.

A. Bills (Dem.) is probably elected.

NEW JERSEY.

Large Republican Gains—Both Branches of the Legislature Republicans.

The election in New Jersey was for eight Sen. ters and the House of Assembly. Returns show that the following named Senators have been elected: Camden county, William J. Sewell, (Rep.); Gloucester county, William J. Sewell, (Rep.); Salem county, Charles P. Plammer, (Rep.); Salem county, Charles P. Plammer, (Rep.); Salem county, Charles P. Plammer, (Rep.); Salem county, William Mag.e. (Rep.); Monmouth county, William M. Hen-relson, (Dem.); Union county, William Mag.e. (Rep.); Monmouth county gives Persining 250 majority—a Democratic gain of 180.

Delaw recounting from Mag.e. (Rep.) (Rep (Rep.); Gloucester county, Charles P. Plammer, (Rep.); Salem county, Charles P. Plammer, (Rep.); Somerset county, Charles B. Moore, (Dem..); Union county, William Magse, (Rep..); Monmouth county, William M. Henrickson, (Dem.); Warren county, William Silvertnorn, (Dem.); Warren county, William Silvertnorn, (Dem.) The next Sende will be composed of twelve Republicans and nine Democrats.

In Mercer county Mesers, Enoch H. Drake (Dem.), John Hart Brewer, and Rower, L. Hichmson (Reps.) are elected by the Assembly, Mount (Rep.) is elected Sheriff.

In Essex county the election was quiet, the number of votes polled being considerably less in Newark than at the charter election. Mr. Kirk, Republican, received ammjority of about 3,000 over his opponent, Mr. Ferry, for State Senator. In the Oranges, although it is a Republican district. Mr. Ferry received a handsome majority. Mr. Campueld, Republican candidate for the Shrievalfy, was elected by a considerable majority over his onnonent, Mr. Dusenberry. All the Republican Assemblymen were elected by larse majorities, with the exception of Mr. Dodd, Democratic candidate in the Second District, who received a majority of about 200. Mr. Doyle, the father of the Cataolic Protectory, Bill was beaten by his opponent, Mr. Richards, in the Eighth District, by about 200 majority, although at the previous election he had a majority of 200. It is considered that the Republican victory is due to the introduction by them of a sectarian issue in the struggle.

Middlessex county elects Hendrickson (Dem.) to the State Senate by L200 majority; also elects Rue and C. D. Hendrickson (Democratic to an early hour this morning show Republican, is elected for Sheriff.

Returns from different parts Indicate large Republican gains, Both branches of the Legislature are Republican.

In Hudson county served half of the registered vote was polled. The returns up to an early hour this morning show Republican, is elected for Sheriff.

Returns from an officer and first Hudles of the Successful candidate

In the First District, w.m. A. Lewis, republican, is elected over Smith, Democrat, by 7s majority. This is a Reputifican gain.

In the Second District, Thos. F. Hannon, Democrat, has a clear majority of 250. The district is strongly Democratic. The Republicans made no non-instition.

Is strongly benchmarked in the Third District by an increased majority.

John D. Carscallen, Republican, is reflected in the Third District by an increased majority.

The Fourth, which has a Democratic Representative at present, elects Win. A. Weeks, Democrat.

In the Fifth District, John J. Toffey, Republican, is elected by 496 majority, a Republican gain.

Thomas J. Carev, who was nominated by the Thomas J. Carev, who was nominated by the democrats in the Sixth District, is defeated by Thomas C. Brown, Rep blican. In the Seventh District, (Hoboken), Rudolph F. Rabe, Democrat, is reflected. The Eighth District is in doubt, with the chances in favor of Alexander Jacobus, Republican.

Union county elects William J. Magle (Rep.) for Senator, and probably Thomason (Dem.) for Sperif; also elects Vall and Cary (Reps.), and Egan (Dem.) to the Assembly. The two Republican Assembly more are gains.

Salem county elects C. Flummer (Rep.) for Senator by 186 majority, a Reput lican gash of 181; Hines (Rep.) for Senator by 186 majority, a Reput lican gash of 181; Hines (Rep.) for Sneriff by 211 majority; Lawrence (Dem.) and ke shey (Rep.) for Assembly, Lawrence that only 3 majority, and Kenshey 185. Keishey 165.
Somerset county elects Moore (Dem.) to the Senate by about 200 majority; also elects a Democratic Cierk and Republican Sheriff, and Voorhees (Rep.) and Bergen (Dem.) to the Assemist.

midnight. These gave a majority of 4.047 votes to the Democratic State ticket.

Mr. Schroeder is probably elected Mayor by a small majority, and Albert Daggett for Sheriff, although complete returns may give both offices to "Ross" MeLaughlin, Mr. Wm. Richardson is badly beaten for Second District and Louding the County ticket is Republican.

Gaston Defeated by About 5.000 Plurality

SPRINGFIELD, Nov. 2 .- The two-thirds of he State already heard from indicate a very light vote, probably not exceeding 145,000. Of that total Rice (Rep.) will have 70,000; Gaston (Dem.), 63,000; and the remaining 12,000 will be divided among Baker (Prohibitory). Phillips (Labor Reform), and C. F. Adams (Independent The Republican gains in Boston and Springfield alone wipe out Gaston's majority in the last year. At the lowest possible estimate Rice has 5,000 plurality, and the Republicans are claiming 10,000. The rest of the Republican State ticket is elected by about 12,000 plurality. Both branches of the Legislature are strongly Republican.

The Democrats lose in Massachusetts this year just about what they gained last on the probijust about what they gained last on the probibition issue. Mr. Rice is elected Governor by about the same plurality over Mr. Gaston that Gaston had last year over Tabot—that is some 7,000. The vote is much smaller than last year, and much less than one-half of the whole voting population. The Legislature is about two-thirds Republican, as last year. The election has no special significance whatever, both parties occupying the same grounds on both national and State questions.

Boston, Nov. 2—8:30 P. M.—One hundred and ninety-one towns in Massachusetts give Rice (Rep.) for Governor, 46,95; Gaston (Dem.), 43,136; Baker (Prohibitionist), 5,180; Philipps, 193; Adams, 1,139. The total vote of Boston this year for Rice is 13,100, and for Gaston 13,136. The vote last year for Gaston was 15,388; for Talbot, 9,697. Rice has gained 6,255 in Boston alone. The present indications point to Rice's election. A heavy falling off in the vote is noticeable. The election of Crapo (Rep.) for Congress in the First District over Davis (Dem.) is assured. New Bedford gives Rice 74 plurality. Gaston's majority there last year was 76.

The vote of the cities is as follows:

Sinclair and Claughton, Conservatives, for the Senate, are elected in the First District over McKenzie and Gray, Independent, Richmond has elected the Conservative ticket by 600 majority.

Later.—Pull returns from Richmond have changed the aspect of affeirs. Gen. Bradley Johnson, for State Senator, against whom the Independents made their greatest effort, has a majority in the city of 500. Returns from the county greatly reduce his majority in the districts, but his election is certain by a majority of over 200. The two other Conservatives for the Senate—fainer and Wortham—are reduced by a much larger majority. The returns from 54 precincts, in six different counties, show an increased majority for the Conservatives, whose gains, in many cases, are large. The Republicans show small gains in a few instances. It is impossible to estimate the extent of this independent movement, outside of this district, as the returns are meagre.

Municipal Election in Detroit.

DETROIT, Nov. 2.-The municipal election to-day absorbed a greater degree of interest than any previously known. Good order prevailed generally, and a very large vote was polled. The contest for Mayor was on the Munday liquor question. Alexander Lewis was the regular Democratic nominee and was also at the head of the law and order ticket, as against W. G. Thompson, nominee of the Republican Convention.

The result is a decided victory for the former. At this time Lewis's majority is estimated at consistentially over 1,000.

Returns from thirteen of the nineteen precincts indicate Lewis's election by about 1,500 majority in the next Council, and also claim that they have elected most of their city ticket; but no definite figures have yet been obtained. than any previously known. Good order pre-

During yesterday afternoon Boss Kelly sat in his private council in Tammany Hall and received visits from his intimate friends, among them Mayor Wickham and his secretary, Col. Harrison, Gunning S. Bedford, Alderman Lewis, Thomas Cooper Campbell, and others. The Boss was confident of victory and estimated the majority of votes by which the Democrats would carry the State at 20.000. He thought John Morrissey would be defeated by 1.500 or 2.000 votes, although Mayor Wickham insisted that the majority would prove to be at least 5,000. Neither the Boss nor his friends had any idea of the defect Tammany Hall had suffered in the city.

At half past 6 o'clock last night the election returns were read before an assemblage that nearly filled the great hall of the society. Gen. Spinola was appointed chairman of the meeting, and Messrs, Storms and Porter secretaries. Boss Kelly sat at a table on the platform, and around him were all the well-known chiefs of the society except Mayor Wickham. As the returns were read it was discovered that the majority of the audience were in sympathy with the opposition. As majority after majority for Hackett and Phelos were announced tumultuous applause was given. The returns were nearly all of an unfavorable complexion, and the faces of the great Sachem and bis chiefs assumed a doubtful expression. When the result of the election was no longer in doubt, Col. Fellows responded to loud calls for a speech in the following words:

"I have no very encouraging news to give you. The returns point to a defeat of the entire Tammany ficket and threaten with disaster the Democratic State ticket."

JOHN KELLY'S SPIECH.

Fellow Chizens: Whatever have been the motives that actuated the people in deciding this contest, I myself feet as I hid the night that I presented the record of Biackett before a judicial convention in this hall. The people zamod say that they did not know anything of his record, for the pamphlet containing that exhibit was sent to nearly every voter in the city and county of New York. Let the responsibility rest on themselves. You can't blame me. In the face of the facts I presented you have relected that man. I say it's a disgrace to the people of the city and county. And the Democracy have sided and assisted in reflecting Benjamin K. Paelps.

My God! is it possible where there is so much intelligence, so much tops of the tity and segacity. JOHN KELLY'S SPEECH.

The Conservatives carry the city of Lynchburg by a small majority, showing a gain of over 100 since last year, when the Republicans scarried the city.

The city of Norfolk elects all Conservatives, there being no opposition.

The Republicans in Norfolk county will probably elect J. D. Brady to the Senate, and Cannon, a negro, to the House.

A MYSTERIOUS DEATH STRUGGLE IN DELANCEY STREET.

The Quarret of Two Jewelers Ending in a Challenge to a Duel in a Tenement-Two Pistols Emptied and One Man Killed.

One of the tenants of 106 Delancey street ran to Officer Henken at about 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon and begged him to go and see what was the trouble in the back room on the top story of the house. He said the door was locked, pistol shots had been heard within, there was a strong smell of smoke, and the tenants feared that somebody had committed suicide. When the officer reached the back room in the top story of 106 Delancey street the door was locked, and a strong smell of gunpowder was met. Bursting open the door Hen-ken almost fell over a man who I y with his feet against the door. A bullet hole was in his forehead and a revolver in his right hand. He was alive, but unconscious. Not six feet from him lay another man, with a bullet hole in his his right hand was bloody, and firmly grasped a right check and another in the right temple; his right hand was bloody, and firmly grasped a pistol, his finger pressing the trigger. He was dead. There were rools of blood or the floor. Soon David Pot'stein entered, and he at first denied all knowl dies of either of the men; but being closely squestioned he said that the dead man was Joseon Goldman, a Polish Jew, and that he had slept with him the night before. He said he oil not know the wounded man, nor could he tell anythine about the killing.

The wounded man w is taken to Behevue Hospital, and there he was identified as David Jeroslaw, a Polish Jew, who and kept a jewelry store at 59 East Broadway. He boarded at 19 Essex street with a fellow countryman, Simon Josepha.
